

KLYRO TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Version: 2.0

Effective Date: September 30, 2026

Status: Pre-Registration Draft

LEGAL IDENTITY NOTICE

Klyro is currently a commerce technology platform operating under the Klyro brand while formal legal registration is being completed.

Until a legal entity is formally established, references to "Klyro", "we", "us", and "our" refer to the Klyro platform, service, and its current operators.

Klyro does not represent itself as an incorporated company or registered legal entity until registration has been completed.

1. ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

These Terms govern access to and use of Klyro websites, applications, software, dashboards, APIs, online stores, and related services.

By creating an account, accessing Klyro, creating a store, or using the Service, you agree to these Terms.

2. THE KLYRO PLATFORM

Klyro provides commerce infrastructure that may allow merchants to:

- Create online stores
- Manage products
- Manage inventory
- Process orders
- Customize storefronts
- Access analytics
- Use integrations
- Manage commerce operations

Klyro may add, modify, or remove features as the platform develops.

3. ACCOUNTS

Users must provide accurate and current information when creating accounts.

Users are responsible for:

- Protecting login credentials
- Maintaining account security
- Monitoring account activity
- Reporting unauthorized access

Users must not share accounts or allow unauthorized access.

4. MERCHANT RESPONSIBILITIES

Merchants using Klyro are responsible for:

- Products sold
- Product descriptions
- Pricing
- Inventory
- Customer communication
- Taxes
- Shipping
- Returns
- Refunds
- Business compliance

Klyro provides technology infrastructure and is not the seller of products listed by merchants.

5. STORES AND PRODUCTS

Merchants maintain ownership of their businesses, products, brands, and customer relationships.

Merchants are responsible for ensuring product listings are accurate, lawful, and not misleading.

Merchants must not use Klyro to sell prohibited products or conduct unlawful activities.

6. ORDERS AND PAYMENTS

Orders placed through Klyro-powered stores are generally transactions between customers and merchants.

Merchants are responsible for:

- Accepting orders
- Fulfilling orders
- Delivering products
- Handling refunds
- Managing customer disputes

Payment processing may involve third-party providers that operate under their own terms.

7. CONTENT OWNERSHIP

Merchants retain ownership of content they upload.

By uploading content, merchants grant Klyro limited permission necessary to:

- Store content
- Display content
- Process content
- Provide the Service
- Maintain backups
- Improve platform functionality

Ownership of merchant content is not transferred to Klyro.

8. ACCEPTABLE USE

Users must not:

- Commit fraud
- Access unauthorized accounts
- Upload malicious software
- Violate privacy rights
- Infringe intellectual property
- Abuse platform systems
- Attempt security attacks
- Use Klyro for illegal activity

9. AI FEATURES

Klyro may provide AI-powered features.

AI tools may assist with:

- Content generation
- Workflow automation
- Analysis
- Recommendations
- Store operations

AI-generated results may contain errors. Users are responsible for reviewing outputs before relying on them for important decisions.

10. THIRD-PARTY SERVICES

Klyro may connect with third-party services including:

- Payment providers
- Hosting providers
- Email services
- Analytics tools
- External integrations

Third-party services are controlled by their own providers and policies.

11. SUBSCRIPTIONS AND BILLING

Klyro may provide paid plans, trials, and promotional services.

Plans may differ by:

- Features
- Usage limits
- Storage
- Support levels
- Store limits

Users are responsible for applicable charges.

12. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

Klyro may restrict or terminate access where necessary to:

- Protect users
- Prevent abuse
- Investigate security issues
- Comply with law
- Enforce these Terms
- Address unpaid charges

13. SERVICE AVAILABILITY

Klyro aims to provide reliable services but does not guarantee uninterrupted availability.

Service interruptions may occur due to:

- Maintenance
- Infrastructure failures

- Security incidents
- Third-party failures
- Events outside reasonable control

14. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Klyro owns or licenses its:

- Software
- Technology
- Branding
- Interfaces
- Designs
- Documentation

Users may not copy, reverse engineer, distribute, or misuse Klyro technology.

15. LIABILITY DISCLAIMER

Klyro provides software infrastructure and does not guarantee:

- Sales
- Revenue
- Business growth
- Customer acquisition
- Product success
- Delivery outcomes

Merchants remain responsible for their businesses.

16. MERCHANT AND CUSTOMER TRANSACTIONS

Klyro is generally not a party to transactions between merchants and customers.

Merchants are responsible for:

- Product quality
- Delivery
- Returns
- Refunds
- Customer satisfaction

17. PRIVACY

Use of Klyro is also governed by the Klyro Privacy Policy.

The Privacy Policy explains information collection, processing, security, and user rights.

18. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES

Because Klyro is currently pre-registration, applicable governing law information may be updated after formal legal establishment.

Parties should attempt informal resolution before pursuing formal dispute processes.

19. CHANGES TO TERMS

Klyro may update these Terms when:

- Services change
- Features are added
- Legal requirements change
- Security practices evolve

The latest version date will indicate the current Terms.

20. PRE-REGISTRATION STATUS

Klyro is currently operated under the Klyro brand while formal registration is being completed.

No fictional company registration details, legal entity claims, or registered office information are provided until officially established.

21. CONTACT

Official support and legal contact information will be published through verified Klyro communication channels once operational.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By using Klyro, you acknowledge that you have reviewed and accepted these Terms.
